July 2018

AuDeHK took people with visual impairment to a bar for watching the World Cup: Round of 16 - Colombia vs. England.

「不要害怕眼前的陰影，因你背後有陽光。」

“A lot of so-called obstacles, including my disability, can be perceived as challenges to get to a higher stage,” Tang said. “I hope all the special education needs students can realise that we may be different to other students, but every single individual is unique in his or her own way.”

People

SEN Support Team was founded in 2015-16 under the Dean of Students' Office to extend support to students with SEN.

The team organizes training & activities to raise awareness on disabilities & foster a disability-inclusive campus.

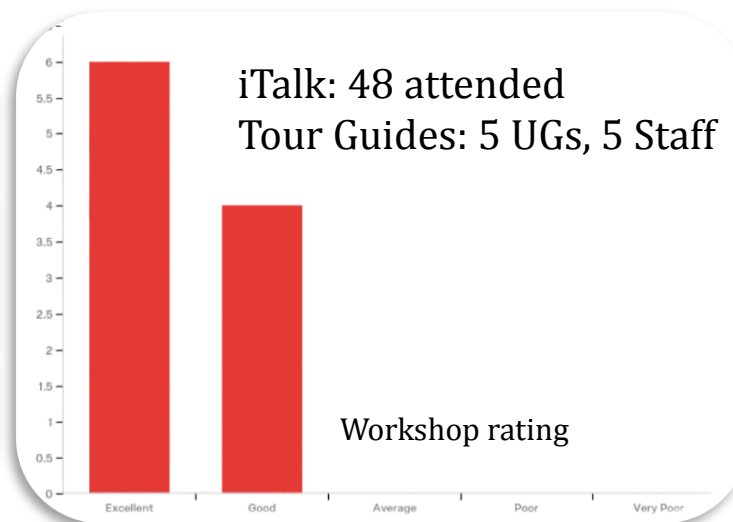

University SEN Working Group was set up to oversee the UGC-funded project on SEN Support as well as coordinate university wide efforts on SEN-related resources and services.

Head of Access Services, Library (and Chair of the Library Users Communications Committee) is a member of this Group.

AD Guided Tour & Feedback

Highlights of the Workshops/Tour

- Writing audio description script for the tour
- Being able to actually apply what was learned feels wonderful!
- The skills learnt in providing audio description services to the people with visual impairment.
- I like to interaction between other participants in the trainings. Also, I appreciate the chance for real AD tour to practice what we learnt in the training.

Other Comments or Suggestions

- Similar of this one or something about hearing impaired
- Good activities for "normal" people to know how to help people with special needs, how to express/describe object from viewpoint of people with special conditions, etc. Looking forward to more activities like this.
- any chance for more practice and service on AD?
- I'd like to join activities with similar type, i.e. training workshops (input) → some contribution (output)

Benefits to the Library

- ✓ Opportunities to be part of new university initiatives
- ✓ Build stronger connections with Dean of Students' Office
- ✓ Increase our profile on campus
 - ✓ Staff participants from Center for Education Innovation, Dean of B&M/Engineering/Science Office, Facilities Management Office, Finance Office, Internal Audit Office, Office of the Vice-President for R & D, Office of Institutional Research, Public Affairs Office, ...
- ✓ Promote a positive image of the Library to outside organizations: AuDeHK, Ebenezer School & Home for the Visually Impaired (teachers, students, volunteers)
- ✓ Enhance awareness of the needs of SEN students

Experience Sharing

- + Build on existing strength:
 - ✓ Library as a popular venue to support teaching & learning
 - ✓ Partnerships with other units
 - ✓ Staff knowledge/interest
- + Keep your finger on the pulse of society/university
- + Be open-minded to new possibilities
- Manage participant expectations
- Select activities appropriate for specific diverse-ability
